

LAMP 53

AXEL WANNBERG

Lamp 53 - Mappa Burl

Drawing inspiration from 70s cork lamps, this piece is uniquely characterized by a 53-degree angle, from which it derives its name.

This unique angle serves as the focal point, showcasing a meticulous exploration of angles and proportions, setting it apart as a truly exceptional piece.

For those who appreciate burl furniture but face space limitations, here's a thoughtful solution. The concept is to offer a "small" piece of burl wood, allowing everyone to incorporate the elegance of burl into their homes. Crafted from mappa burl, this lamp effortlessly blends style and practicality, bringing a natural touch to any space. Discover the understated charm of Lamp 53 and introduce a hint of burl wood into your living space.
